A sunny north aspect, elevated district views and quiet setting to the rear of the block give this spacious two-bedroom apartment a welcoming ambiance. With only ever one owner, the bright and airy apartment has been held for almost half a century and is presented in excellent condition with scope to add your stamp of style. A superb location right on the border of Coogee, between the beachfront and Randwick village, offers an enviable lifestyle and an easy stroll to recreational parkland and cafe society.
